3. Mr. William C. McCutcheon, Jr. (Code 171, Ext. 8183), Assistant Director of Personnel of the Civil Service Commission, called me at the suggestion of Mr. Winslow, the Commission's Acting Executive Director. They are contacting a few people in Government to secure a name for a qualified person to be Chief of the Commission's Security Appraisal staff (GS-15) to administer the Government's security program under Executive Order 10450. The qualifications which they desire include investigative experience, knowledge of current security problems, knowledge of sources of information, ability to analyze and evaluate complicated cases, ability to prepare case reports, ability to work well with Government security officers, established reputation for impartiality and integrity, and ability to make agency security programs operate effectively under the Executive Order. I told Mr. McCutcheon that I would give some thought to possible names in this connection.
